THEY CLASH TO-NIGHT.

Kennedy and Collyer Come Together For Twenty Rounds To-Night in the Metropolitan Club-Collyer the Local Pavorite.

The sports of the tri-state radius will flock to the arena of the M. A. C., at Fulton, this evening to witness what everybody believes will be the greatest pugliistic event ever pulled off by the "Mets." In Frank Collyer, of Brooklyn and Eddie Kennedy, of Pittsburgh, the club secured two of the best 140-pound ers in the country, and as both men are announced to have trained to the hour for to-night's battle, the expectation i general that they will put up an article of "scrap" that will enthuse the specta

Kennedy and his manager, Jimmy Mason, were expected to arrive from Pittsburgh early Sunday evening, but they had not made their apeparance up to a late hour in the night. Doubtles. they will come down from the Smoky City this morning, and will be followed in the afternoon by a large delegation of Pittsburgh sports, all of whom are said to have Kennedy coin galore. Collyer has made such a fine impression upon the Wheeling followers of ring events that it is likely nearly all of them will line up for the Brooklynite with both enthusiasm and money, and no Pittsburgher's betting challenge will go untaken. Collyer has been forced by Kennedy to concede catch-weights, but the for mer's friends need not worry over it, as the Collyer lieutenants have given out the tip that Frank will take on a few pounds himself, and possibly will out weigh the Pittsburgher to-night. Collyer has fought at above 140, and is said to be even stronger at added weight. The preliminary will be put on a

8:30, and the main event at 9:30. In the prolindnary, "Buzz" Auber, of this city and Gillhooley, the "Bridgeport Terwill go ten lively rounds. Bridgeporter is preceded by a reputa tion as a terrible punisher, but Auber's friends believe he can hold his own and then some Colonel P. J. Murphy will referee both

WON BY THE VESPERS.

The Americans Were Prohibitive Favorites at Paris Yesterday.

PARIS, Aug. 26.—The Vesper Boat Club, of Philadelphia, to-day won the seniors eight championship, the only event in the international regatta held under the auspices of the Paris exposition, in which America competed.

Several thousand spectators gathered along the banks of the Seine at Asnieres where the regatta was held. A large number of their fellow countrymen cheered the American crew to victory The Vespers would have preferred a warmer day but, in other respects, they thought the conditions perfect. Every hour and all regarded the result as a foregone conclusion. This conviction was shared by the bookmakers, who flatly refused all bets on the Americans. The Ghent crew were were the second choice at 3 to 1 against them.

Four crews competed, the others be ing the Minerva eight from Amsterdam, and the Germania, of Hamburg. The race began at 5:15 p. m. The American were clearly physically superior to their opponents, their big frames and athlette build evoking flattering comment when they carried their oars from the boat house to the water side and took their places in the shell. Immediately on the firing of the pistol, the Vespers went ahead. their self-confidence was well founded was shown in the first few hundred yards, when they had secured such a lead as dispelled all doubt of their victory. From that moment interest cen tered in the distance by which they would win. Amid cheers they finished as casy first by several lengths. Time, 6 thinutes 74-5 seconds. The Ghent eight had second place. Time, 6 minutes 13 4-5 seconds; the Minervas third, in 6 minues and 25 seconds, the Germanias bringing up the rear in 6 min-utes 23 1-5 seconds.
